Grand Jury Has Completed Its Work.

FOUR CHARGES AGAINST SABATE

'Moonshiners' Are Indicted Attorneys Appointed to Defend by Judge Estee.

The grand jury made its report to Judge Estee in United States Court yesterday morning and the indicted prisoners were arraigned in the afternoon. None of them pleaded to the indictments and will not do so before this morning. Attorneys were appointed in each case, none of the indicted defendants having provided counsel. The report of the grand jury was as

Honorable M. M. Estee, Judge of the United States District Court of the Territory of Hawaii:

Sir:-The grand jury, empaneled, sworn and charged by you on the 13th day of October, A. D. 1902, having concluded its duties, begs to submit herewith the following report:

The United States Attorney has prought to the attention of this grand jury ten cases, all of which have been carefully considered, and in nine cases true bills have been found and returned to your Honorable Court; and in the one case no bill has been returned, as the evidence presented was not deemed | sufficient to warrant a conviction.

There were no secret investigations Q made other than those presented by the United States Attorney. A list of the cases investigated by this grand jury, in which true bills of indictment have been found is hereto attached and made a part of this re- Q In concluding this report the grand 8 jury takes this opportunity to express its appreciation of the ability, fairness and courtesy shown by Robert W. Breckons during its short session. List of cases examined and in which true bills of indictment have been

THE ARRAIGNMENT.

In the afternoon the indicted defendants were brought into court for arraignment. Creighton & Correa appeared for Sabate, against whom four indictments were returned. In one case there are eleven counts, each alleging the unlawful opening and detention of a letter. He will plead to the indict-

In the case of Manuel Vierra and Daisy Vierra, charged with illicit distilling, Judge Stanley was appointed to defend. Daisy said she had money but preferred that the Court appoint an attorney, and Judge Estee called for volunteers to defend Mrs. Vierra. No one proffered his services, however, and Mr. Stanley having already been assigned to the husband's case, was asked to act for Mrs. Vierra. The indictments were read yesterday afternoon but pleas were reserved until to-

In the case of Ton Pong, also charged with illicit distilling, W. T. Rawlins was appointed to defend and he will plead this morning. This will probably PresidentCecil Brown be the first case taken up for trial, unless a plea of guilty is entered.
